

Ms. Daw Aung San Suu Kyi
Oxford

Barcelona, 19 June 2012

Dear Ms. Suu Kyi,

It pleases me to contact you, first of all, to congratulate you for your appointment as parliamentary in the Burmese Parliament, position from which it is sure that you will firmly work for the democratization and improvement of your country.

We are also very glad that you can finally travel outside Burma, and visit several cities of Europe this month of June. Mr. Xavier Rubert de Ventós, President of the Jury of the International Catalunya Prize, and Ms. Teresa Sala, Secretary of the award, have traveled to Oxford with the objective to meet you and give you this letter.

This is a formal invitation for you to come to Barcelona next year, to make the awarding ceremony of the Catalonia International Prize, which you received in 2008, together with Dr. Cynthia Maung. A ceremony was held then in Barcelona, attended by Dr. Maung and Mrs. Zoya Phan, who came on your behalf. Next year will be a special year, as it will be the 25th anniversary of the Prize. With you, the celebration would be extraordinary.

Thanking you in advance for your kind attention and looking forward to hearing from you, let me express my admiration, as well as that of the whole jury, for your work and the bravery with which you confront the fight for a better country.

Faithfully yours,

Artur Mas

