DAY OF CATALONIA
PRESS FILE

5 September 2012

PRESENTATION OF THE INSTITUTIONAL ACTS

The institutional celebration of the National Day of Catalonia will take place, as in previous years, in Parc de la Ciutadella, and is jointly organized by the Catalan government and the Catalan parliament. The acts will focus, as on earlier occasions, on different highlights relating to events and persons of particular relevance to Catalan culture that have been commemorated in the course of this year. The Catalan language will be the leitmotiv of this year's institutional celebration of Catalonia's National Day.

The creative direction of the event will be in the hands of playwright and theatre director Joan Ollé; the celebration will be presented by journalist Mònica Terribas. The programme includes readings of poems and other texts by Catalan authors, combined with musical pieces interpreted by a selection of well-known artists.

The highlights that will receive special attention during the celebration are the following:

- 150th anniversary of the birth of Antoni Maria Alcover (Manacor 1862 - Palma, 1932). Writer, clergyman, linguist and expert in folklore from Majorca.
- 100th anniversary of the birth of Xavier Montsalvatge (Girona, 1912 - Barcelona, 2002). Composer and music critic.
- 50th anniversary of the death of Eduard Toldrà (Vilanova i la Geltrú, 1895 – Barcelona, 1962). Musician and composer.

- 100th anniversary of the birth of Pere Calders (Barcelona, 1912 -1994). Writer and artist.
- 100th anniversary of the birth of Avel·lí Artís Gener (Tísner) (Barcelona, 1912 – 2000). Journalist and writer.

- 100th anniversary of the birth of Joan Sales (Barcelona, 1912 –1983). Writer, poet and translator.
- 50th anniversary of the publication of the novel La Plaça del Diamant, by Mercè Rodoreda (Barcelona, 1908 - Girona, 1983). Writer.
- 50th anniversary of the founding of Edicions 62. Renowned Catalan publishing house.
- 50th anniversary of the publication of Nosaltres, els valencians, by Joan Fuster (Sueca, 1922 - 1992). Writer.
- 25th anniversary of the death of J.V. Foix (Barcelona, 1893 - 1987). Poet, journalist and essay writer.
- 40th anniversary of the death of Gabriel Ferrater (Reus, 1922 - Sant Cugat del Vallès, 1972). Poet and linguist.
- 50th anniversary of the death of Francesc Pujols (Barcelona, 1882 - Martorell, 1962). Writer and philosopher.

As in previous years, the celebration will start with the Full Dress Parade of the Mossos d'Esquadra and the presenting of the national flag by one of the Catalan mayors. On this occasion, this will be done by the mayor of Capmany, one of the municipalities affected by the forest fires in the Empordà region this summer.

Musical interpretations and readings will be offered by Cobla Sant Jordi – Ciutat de Barcelona, the choir Cor Lieder Càmera, the musical quartet Las Migas and mezzo-soprano Marisa Martins; actresses Pepa López, Carme Sansa, Victòria Pagès and Sílvia Munt; actors Pep Tosar and Ivan Benet; singer-songwriter Roger Mas, and literary critic and essay writer Josep Maria Castellet.

As a sign of the international resonance and prestige of our culture, the programme includes a performance by the Portuguese actress, movie director and singer Maria de Medeiros, who will sing a poem of Ausiàs March, musically arranged by Raimon.

The image of the Diada is a reproduction of the work L'esperit català (The Catalan spirit, 1971) by Antoni Tàpies, a leading figure in 20th century art and a universal Catalan artist, who died last February.

The eleventh of September is Catalonia's National Day. It commemorates the Catalans' fierce desire to reinstate self-government after their defeat in 1714 by Philip V's Spanish army. Catalonia, which had until that date been a sovereign nation, lost its national freedoms, its political institutions, its laws, and the Catalan language was banned.
