

President of the Generalitat de Catalunya

DECREE

129/2014, dated 27 September 2014, calling a popular non-referendum consultation on the political future of Catalonia.

As the institutional system through which the Catalan government operates, the Generalitat de Catalunya has been attributed the exclusive competence in matters of popular consultations in the terms set forth in article 122 of the Statute of Autonomy. This capacity is connected to the subjective statutory right, along with the mandate for the legislative body, of the citizens of Catalonia to participate in public affairs, as called for as well in article 29 of the same statutory norm.

In fulfilment and implementation of this legal framework, with a sweeping majority the Catalan Parliament has approved Law 10/2014 dated 26 September 2014 on popular non-referendum consultations and other forms of citizen participation. Title II of this norm states that the competent authorities from the Generalitat may call on the Catalans, in accordance with the requirements of the Law on Legitimate Persons, to express their opinion via vote on a given action, decision or public policy within its scope of competence.

The affairs that may be consulted in a call for vote throughout all of Catalonia include those in which the Generalitat has the authority to exercise formal initiative before the institutions of the State - including those of special collective importance for the country - as recognised in articles 87 and 166 of the Spanish Constitution and article 61 of Catalonia's Statute of Autonomy.
