

Catalonia's Mediterranean Strategy, MedCat 2030, is a road map for the Government of Catalonia's foreign action in the Mediterranean and includes the 2019–22 Action Plan to be pursued over the next four years

Mission

- CONTRIBUTE to changing the focus of the Mediterranean project in Europe
- STRENGTHEN relationships and exchanges between actors on both shores
- PURSUE the 2030 Agenda Sustainable Development Goals in the Mediterranean region

Vision

The Government of Catalonia is committed to building an innovative, intercultural, inclusive Mediterranean community based on the welfare of people, the progress of societies, and the value of dialogue and rights

COMMITMENT to tackling global challenges

IMPACT and renewed project

PARTNERSHIPS for greater visibility and exchange

The strategy promotes a transformative, innovation-based model that seeks to address the global challenges – human, social and economic – that affect all Catalonia's foreign action

Catalonia wants to increase its capacity and influence in the region and have an impact on Mediterranean policy in Europe

Under the strategy, Catalonia encourages exchanges, promotes its role as a Mediterranean hub, and raises its profile in the Mediterranean

- 7 strategic objectives
- >
- 20 lines of action
- >
- 116 key initiatives
- >
- 250 ministerial actions over 2019